

Under Indiana's Hardest Hit Fund Unemployment Bridge Program, the Indiana Foreclosure Prevention Network is offering individuals who are unemployed through no fault of their own assistance in paying their mortgage and related expenses while the individual seeks new employment.

This program will cover a portion of principal, interest, taxes and insurance (PITI) for eligible unemployed homeowners while they are seeking re-employment or utilizing training through the Indiana Department of Workforce Development.

BUILDING THE BRIDGE TO Recovery

Unemployed and Need Help
Paying Your Mortgage?

Who's Eligible?

The applicant must be:

- A Homeowner, owning only one home (and currently residing in that home)
- An unemployment insurance recipient
- A participant of approved training, education or volunteer work

To see additional eligibility requirements please visit www.877GetHope.org.

What's Required?

The applicant must:

- Agree to pay a portion of monthly income toward mortgage
- Meet income eligibility requirements based on county of residence (income requirements for each county are listed online at www.877GetHope.org)
- Be receiving unemployment insurance

The Indiana Foreclosure Prevention Network (IFPN) will pay eligible participants mortgages for 12-18 months depending on your county's unemployment rate. All assistance under this program is considered a loan. The loan will only have to be repaid if the homeowner sells the property before the forgiveness period expires (10 years) and there is sufficient equity to pay the loan.

How Do I Apply?

Unemployed homeowners can apply for this assistance online at www.877GetHope.org. By filling out the paperwork online, you will begin working with an Indiana Foreclosure Prevention Network specialist. The specialist will be able to determine your eligibility and assist you through the process.

You will need the following items to apply online:

- ✓ Any correspondence from your mortgage company or its attorney
- ✓ Most recent mortgage statement
- ✓ Most recent bills and statements for all expenses
- ✓ Copy of unemployment eligibility and explanation of benefit or a print out of UI homepage
- ✓ Last 60 days of pay stubs for all employment and income sources
